Matching Histograms to Data

Consider the following four histograms. Listed below are four variables. Determine which histogram best matches which variable.

Variables:
2. Miles of coastline for each of the 50 United States. (Which states do you think would be in the class furthest to the right?)
3. Number of miles traveled to work, that is, the commuting distance, for employed adults that work in the same city in which they live.