

A Pipeline Issues Workshop for Faculty of Women's Colleges and Minority Serving Institutions

Saturday, September 30, 2006
G108 Harrelson Hall
North Carolina State University

- 8:30 am Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 am Welcome and Opening Remarks
Sastry Pantula
Professor and Head, Department of Statistics, NC State University
- Daniel Solomon
Dean of the College of Physical and Mathematical Sciences and Professor of Statistics,
NC State University
- Jose Picart
Vice Provost for Diversity and African-American Affairs and Professor of Counselor
Education, NC State University
- 9:15 am Career Opportunities in Statistics
Moderators: Sastry Pantula and William Swallow, NC State University
Panelists: Nicole Blackman, GlaxoSmithKline; Stacy Lindborg, Eli Lilly and Company;
Bob Rodriguez, SAS Institute; Clyde Tucker, Bureau of Labor Statistics
- 10:30 am Break
- 10:45 am Mentoring and Partnership Opportunities
Moderator: Kimberly Weems, NC State University
Panelists: Scarlett Bellamy, University of Pennsylvania; Dennis Boos, NC State University;
Elizabeth Ceranowski, SAS Institute; Ralph Smith, NC State University and SAMSI
- 12:15 pm Group Photo
- 12:30 pm Lunch
- 1:45 pm Preparation for Statistics Graduate Programs
Moderator: Pam Arroway, NC State University
Panelists: Alicia Carriquiry, Iowa State University; Melanie Wall, University of Minnesota
- 3:15 pm Break
- 3:30 pm Resources for Faculty
Lecturer: Roger Woodard, NC State University
- 4:45 pm Closing Remarks